SIX VALUABLE AND POPULAR MUSICAL WORKS.

The Best and Cheapest Instructor for the Violin.

WINNER'S AMERICAN VIOLINIST.

THE BEST, as the author has made it a point to include in the "American Violinist" all the good features of other books, and discarded those portions which serve to lead the pupil astray.

THE CHEAPEST, as it contains double the amount of instruction and choice selections found in any other 75 cent violin book.

"Winner's American Violinist" is not published in the usual form of books known as seventy-five cent instructors, but is printed from regular size sheet music plates, which are double the size of the others.

THE CONTENTS have been selected with care, arranged in the most instructive and pleasing manner, and are, therefore, unlike others heretofore published, which consist of a few tunes with the scantiest amount of instruction, bound in the form of a book. Among the contents will be found the most popular songs and pieces, including the best-known airs from all the late operas.

Although two books in the usual form might have been issued for the cost of publishing the "American Violinist," the price has been placed at the same figure; and we are confident that it will become the favorite book with teacher and pupil.

HARMONY PRIMER.

BY DR. JOHN STAINER.

A concise and practical work upon this branch of the Musical Art, by one of the best of English musicians. Dr. Stainer received his degree (Mus. Doc.) from Oxford, and at present is Professor of Harmony in the National Training School of Music at Kensington, and also in the Department of Education at the Crystal Palace, Sydenham. In conjunction with Mr. Barrett he is the editor of the most complete Dictionary of Musical Terms ever published. It will be easily seen that he brings to his work both scholarly attainments and experience, added to a happy manner of expressing his thoughts that cannot fail to interest students.

The work is full of examples and contains numerous exercises for each subject treated.

A rudimental knowledge of Harmony is necessary to every musical student who desires to advance, and the Harmony Primer will prove the surest and most rapid means to that end.

It is, without doubt, the cheapest work of the kind before the public.

PERKINS' CLASS & CHOIR.

By H. S. Perkins, assisted by Chas. H. Gabriel and Thomas Parkison.

Owing to a delay in the making of plates and issuing of advance copies, "Class and Choir" was not ready for sale until the latter part of August. We can safely say that no book of the kind has ever met with such a large and satisfactory sale. Mr. Perkins has proved himself head and shoulders above all the writers of this class of books. The large sales reported by dealers after a critical examination by their customers, who, when buying a new book for their class or convention use, are under the necessity of dispensing with those already purchased, is the most satisfactory guarantee to a publisher that his efforts in offering only the very best book of the kind is fully appreciated. For the benefit of those who have not seen "Class and Choir," we give a brief outline of the contents.

CLASS AND CHOIR is prepared expressly for the wants of Singing Schools, Choirs, Elementary Courses in Academies, Seminaries, Normal Schools, and all institutions of learning; also for Musical Institutions and Conventions.

The editor's very large experience in all departments of vocal instruction, his knowledge of the present wants of the singing public and of teachers, together with his travels in researches in Europe and the Old World, well fit him for the task of preparing elementary books of this character. Sales of some of his works have reached upwards of 200,000 copies.

1st. CLASS AND CHOIR contains 240 pages, and retails at $7.50 per dozen.

2d. The Elementary Department is especially complete, and the treatment of each subject will be found logical and helpful to the pupil. Practice is kept in the foreground and theory plays, as it should, a secondary part. In fact, we claim that "Class and Choir" contains the most thorough elementary department of any book published.

3d. There are an unusual large number of Glees, Part Songs, etc., for mixed, male and female voices, which makes the book valuable for concert purposes.

4th. There is a good and sufficient number of Hymn Tunes in all the principal meters.

5th. The Anthem and Choir Department presents a high standard of excellence.

6th. The variety of Chants will be found useful for practice and suitable for various occasions; also Responses, etc.

7th. CLASS AND CHOIR is offered to the public as a book in many details superior to all others of its class and object.
